

Education:

- Bachelor's Degree from the College of Law and Political Sciences – King Saud University.
- Graduated from the Department of Law, GPA 4.58 out of 5 with First Honors Degree.

Experiences:

- Cooperative Training:
 - A trainee in the Legal Department of the Ministry of Finance.
- Others:
 - Having experience in computer skills.
 - Having experience in programs and events management.

Legal Workshops & Courses:

- The skill of drafting corporate contracts.
- New Government Tenders and Procurement Program.
- Integrity in the legal field.
- Adherence and money laundering crimes.
- Protection of integrity and combating corruption in the privatization programs.
- Combating corruption stages in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
- A lecture on how to recover the funds in commercial transactions.

Certificates & Accomplishments:

- The Ideal Student Certificate at the level of the College of Law and Political Sciences.
- Head of the Effective Partnership Integrity (Nazaha) Club with the Supervisory and Anti-Corruption Commission at King Saud University.
(2017/ Active Member - 2018/ Head of the Support and Supply Committee - 2019/ Head of the Club)
- Representing King Saud University in the National Ambassadors Program at Taibah University with the support of the King Abdulaziz Center for National Dialogue.
(Participation in a seminar on the Saudi Vision 2030, a course on team management, and an educational debate and exchange of experiences)
- Chairwoman of the Student Committee for General and Specialized Clubs Affairs at King Saud University.

Presentations:

- Administrative and financial corruption.

- The commercial franchise for a small investor.
- A research paper on the principles of governance and its relationship to ongoing commitments.
- A proposal to amend the provision of Article 17 of the Saudi Penal Procedures Law.
- Presenting of the training journey file for the Research and Training Course.